

The Chimay Brewery celebrates the 175 years of the Scourmont Abbey with an exclusive limited edition Trappist beer: Chimay 175

Chimay, 3 June 2025 – The Trappist Abbey of Scourmont is celebrating its 175th anniversary this year. Founded in 1850, this Cistercian abbey in the heart of the Hainaut region is the birthplace of the Chimay Brewery, world-renowned for its Trappist beers.

To celebrate the Abbey's 175 years of history, commitment and its local roots, the Chimay Trappist brewery is unveiling an exclusive creation: Chimay 175. A lively yet refined limited edition blond beer, brewed in the spirit of the monastic tradition.

This new addition to the Chimay family boasts a bright blonde colour, a fine, persistent head and an elegant nose with aromas of citrus fruit, red apple and spices such as cardamom and coriander. On the palate, Chimay 175 reveals a harmonious balance between fruity freshness and spicy complexity, with a dry and subtly piquant finish.

With an alcohol content of 6.5% and an ideal serving temperature between 4 and 6°C, Chimay 175 is a refreshing beer to be enjoyed during this commemorative year.

An authentic Trappist beer

Chimay 175, like all other Chimay beers, bears the Authentic Trappist Product label, guaranteeing that:

- The beer is produced in the Trappist abbey itself
- Under the supervision of the monks
- And that the majority of the profits are donated to social aid.

A social, economic and environmental commitment

Chimay has been a driving force for local and sustainable development since its inception. Through the Chimay-Wartoise Foundation, the profits generated are donated to numerous social, economic and environmental development projects in the region. The community of monks and the A.S.B.L "Solidarité Cistercienne", a non-profit organisation, also support numerous initiatives both in the region and internationally. In addition, the company has a strong commitment to the environment, with renewable energies, short supply chains and sustainable resource management.

About the Chimay Group

Monastic activity in Chimay began in 1850. The Chimay group (Bière de Chimay, ChimayFromage, Discobeer, Auberge de Poteaupré, Fondation Chimay Wartoise, Abbaye de Scourmont, Solidarité Cisterienne, etc.) employs over 250 people. On the other hand, the group's activity generates many indirect jobs in the region, especially among dairy producers. In addition to an important human dimension, Chimay is also committed to respecting natural resources. Since their creation, the Chimay brewery and cheese factory have donated most of their profits to social initiatives.

Did you know that? The Trappist logo confirms that the beer is brewed in the abbey itself, under the supervision of the monks, and that the majority of the revenue is destined for social purposes.
